

Who's standing up for animals this election?

This Federal election will determine the future of Australia's live sheep export trade. Here's where the parties stand...

Do they support an end to live sheep exports?

Animal Justice Party	YES
The Australian Greens	YES
Australian Labor Party	YES
Australian Workers Party	YES
Centre Alliance	YES
Derryn Hinch's Justice Party	YES
Great Australian Party	YES
Health Australia Party	YES
Liberal Party of Australia	NO
The Nationals	NO
Pauline Hanson's One Nation	NO
Socialist Alliance	YES
Sustainable Australia	YES

A growing number of Independents also support an end to the trade:

- Andrew Wilkie MP — member for Clark in Tasmania;
- Dr Kerry Phelp MP — member for Wentworth in New South Wales;
- Julia Banks MP — running for Flinders in Victoria; and
- Brett O'Donnell — running for the South Australian Senate.
- Zali Steggall — running for Warringah in New South Wales; and,
- Oliver Yates — running for Kooyong in Victoria.

These lists are not exhaustive. If you're not on them and would like to be, or if you know of another Independent or party with a policy on live export, contact us at enquiries@animalsaustralia.org

Get the full low-down at AnimalsAustralia.org/election